vanced by the Rotary club of Mont-gomery, an organization of business men. The plan involves direct help to the farmer boy growing pigs. Asstated by one of the banks the Rotary club will finance the buying of 200 pigs by industrious boys of Montgomery. A thousand dollars has been pledged for this purpose. The money will be tent in sums of $5 each; a note will be taken from each boy and he will be advised and directed in his purchase of a pig. If he is reason-ably industrious and careful he not only will gain in experience, but will profit financially.

of every poy who starts out with a bottom-rung job were encouraged to feel that he was a permanent piece of timber instead of a here splinter or piece of firewood, he would surely be worth more to his employers and to himself. And this applies to farm boys as well as to any others. The boys as well as 10 any others. The farm boy ought to have a better show than the office boysin a packing house for there is issually the strong brace of parental interest back of him. If this parental interest finds the right outlet, each generation of farmers should be a long way in the lead of the preceding one.

It is not the interest that save "Do

It is not the interest that says, "Do like your dad does," that makes for improvement. It is the spirit that Kansas City Grain.

"When the corn was planted and began to come up early in June, we would find that it could not be plowed erosswise because the rows were so erocked. This meant dirty corn and a large decrease in yield.

"I tried the plan of offering the man on the planter $5 if the rows were straight both ways. That even ing I found him out fixing his machine and wires, and have never had Chicago Produce.
